

Stewart Kimble Martin Memorial Scholarship

Undergraduate Scholarship Application

The Stewart K. Martin Scholarship was established for graduates of Cotulla High School who are active in serving their community. Mr. Martin graduated from Cotulla High in 1970 and went on to Texas A&M University. After graduating from A&M, Mr. Martin returned to his hometown to run the family business. Mr. Martin loved his community and was proudly active in numerous civic activities and organizations. Because of his passion for the preservation of Cotulla's past and commitment to its present and future, he co-founded the Laredo Area Community Foundation as a way to encourage philanthropy and service in the South Texas region.
